NPD MEDIA RELEASE

04/25/2013 11:00 a.m.

Incident: Police Volunteers Recognized

Details: At the April 23, 2013 City of Newport Volunteer recognition night, several Newport Police Volunteers were honored for their service to the Department and to the Community.

This group of people volunteered more than 3,000 hours, which has a value to the City of more than $59,000. Activities with which the NPD Volunteers assist include the Seafood and Wine Festival, Loyalty Days Parade, Hatfield Marine Science Day, and the Celtic Festival, to name a few. The Police Volunteers also patrol the Bay Front, providing information to people visiting the area. They handle handicap parking enforcement, and many special projects for the Police Department and the City.

The Newport Police Volunteers are an awesome group of people who help make Newport a great place to live. The following were the volunteers recognized: bronze medal (for volunteering more than 100 hours) to Al Pashusta, JoAn McAdams, Ginger Dale, Mike Larsen, Candy Garrison, Lee Fries, Ellie Lemaster and Larry Wooten; silver medal (more than 250 hours) to John McKean, Al Bussey, LaVonne Bussey; and gold medal (more than 500 hours) to Barbara Dudley and Wayde Dudley. All of the volunteers received a letter from The White House congratulating them on receiving the President's Volunteer Service Award.

Anyone interested in exploring volunteering for the Newport Police Department is invited to call us at 541-574-3348, or go to the Department's web site at www.newportpolice.net.
