NPD MEDIA RELEASE

09/29/2010 7:00 p.m.

Incident: Fugitive Warrant Service      Case: 10N-01809

Location: NW Nye and Olive Streets

Date/Time: 09/29/2010 at 3:00 p.m.

Suspect: Anthony J. Newby, age 24 of Pennsylvania

Details: On 09/29/2010, Newport Police received information from the United States Marshals Office of a fugitive from the State of Pennsylvania wanted for Parole Violations. The fugitive was identified as Anthony J. Newby. After being convicted in Pennsylvania on charges of Corruption of Minors, he had absconded from his parole earlier in the year. Further information from the U.S. Marshals indicated that Newby had been left to care for a six year-old female child in a local motel room. Officers quickly located the motel and vehicle he was reported to be operating. When Newby and the child left the motel in the vehicle, officers conducted a traffic stop on Newby and took him into custody without incident. The child was taken into protective custody by a representative of the Department of Human Services Protective Service Unit and placed into foster care.

Newby was lodged at the Lincoln County Jail on a Fugitive Complaint. His bail set at $100,000.
