Please give your attendance to one of those works of local history that deserves a far greater audience than it is likely to receive. John H. Baker, author of Camp Adair will join us throughout the trip and narrate for us the sights and scenes along with a marvelous history. We start our tour through Benton county museum followed by a up close look at Camp Adair. Camp Adair is also the biggest ghost town in Oregon. A haunting feeling will come over any visitor who takes time to understand what happened here and what sacrifices were made by those soldiers who came here to prepare for war.
